

Estes Valley Board of REALTORS®
2023 Rookie of the Year Nomination

The purpose of the Rookie of the Year award is to recognize an active member of the Board that has been involved in real estate sales between 6 months to 18 months, as of September 1st of this year (last half of 2022 and 2023).

Nominations from the general membership are reviewed by the Rookie of the Year Committee, and a winner is selected based upon the qualifications below.

Name of Nominee for 2023 Rookie of the Year _____

Criteria

Board Involvement (25%) – committees, attendance to meetings and functions.

Professionalism (25%) – adheres to the laws and regulations of the Code of Ethics and member Boards, treats all others with respect, behaves with integrity, furthers the principles of good real estate practice among other agents and the general public.

Real estate education (25%) – continuing education in the real estate profession, including annual commission updates and ethics classes.

Community Involvement (25%) – participation in civic or service clubs, charitable activities, political action, fraternal or religious groups, etc.

*Please note:

This award is not based on production.

This award might NOT be given each year – only when applicable and worthy.

The award winner is selected by a Rookie of the Year committee determined by the President of the Board.